

Shipping Position Live goes to Star FM

SHIPPING Position Live, the popular maritime industry-based radio programme is now on Star FM, 101.5.

Shipping Position Live navigates to Star FM with a reach tradition of breaking the news and an informed analysis of events as they unfold in the strategic maritime industry of the nation's economy.

A statement released in Lagos by Mr. Sesan Onileimo, chief executive officer of First Mediacon Network Limited, owners of the programme confirmed that Shipping Position Live has starts running from today.

He said that the programme would be on between 8.30 and 8.45 am on Wednesday and 8.15 and 8.30 am on Friday. "The choice of Star FM is informed by the need to reach a wider spectrum of Nigerians in general and the shipping community in particular," he explained.

The chief executive officer and producer of Shipping Position Live assured that the programme is being redirected and repackaged to make it better.
