

CSR: Tin-can port management gifts bags, umbrellas to four secondary schools

By Godfrey Bivbere

THE management of Tin-can Island port as part of its Corporate Social Responsibility, CSR has presented school bags to students of four schools in Ajeromi-Ifeleodu local government area.

The principals and the teachers of the four schools were also given umbrellas. The management team of Tin-can Island port led by the Port Manager, Jibril Buba, presented the items to the students and staff as part of its Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR).

The four schools that benefitted from the Tin-can Island port CSR are Newland Senior Secondary School Tolu, Bola Bola-Ige Millennium Senior Secondary School Tolu, Tin-can Island Junior High School Tolu, and Alakoto Junior High School Tolu.

Addressing the students and staff of the schools, the Port Manager charged the students to focus on their studies to enable achieve their dreams. He told the students that he grew up in their community, and attended school there before finally working at the port which is separated by the river.

He charged the students to draw inspiration from him and aspire to work in Nigerian Ports Authority, NPA, noting that they have all the opportunity to become staff of the NPA.

Addressing the principals and teachers of the schools, Buba commended them for a job well done but encouraged them to be more dedicated as their job helps in building future leaders in society.

He noted that the idea of CSR is from the Managing Director of NPA, Mohammed Bello-Koko who charged Port Managers to affect their host community positively through CSR. He said that the port management would have done more but for the economic downturn, he however assured that the management would do more when the economy improves.
