

Fairplay

THE INTERNATIONAL SHIPPING WEEKLY

Published since 1883

p7

PSA abandons Aden

p12

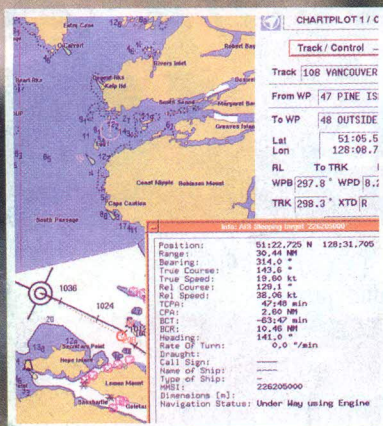

Yukos loses head

p16

Italian owners aghast

NIGERIAN SHIPPERS' COUNCIL LIBRARY

ALS: the biggest thing since radar p38

Dutch resistance p22

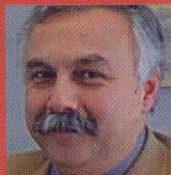

Dezentjé Hamming – maritime champion

COMPANIES

Salvage firm spreads its wings

p46

NEWSWATCH

EC commits to shipping

p18

Europaort
See us at Stand 03.3011

Contents

NIGERIAN SHIPPERS' COUNCIL LIBRARY

LEFT: The much-disputed EU Ports Directive is just one of several crucial maritime issues on the agenda in the Netherlands
(see Cover Story, p22)

PROFILES

RIGHT MAN IN THE RIGHT PLACE

Jeremy Penn, chief executive designate of the Baltic Exchange, appears to have the perfect background to lead the Baltic on its new venture into the information business. 36

SPECIAL REPORTS

BREAKTHROUGH IN MARINE NAVIGATION

Automatic Identification Systems – the next big thing in vessel traffic control 38

COMPANIES & MARKETS

Reefer rates promising	45
Companies	46
Newbuildings.	48
Ship sales/sale & purchase.	50
Fixtures/commodities.	52
Dry markets/indices.	54
Tanker markets/indices.	56
Market indicators	58

REGULARS

Look Out	1
Letters.	34
Shoes & Ships and Déjà vu	35
Company index.	59
Captain's Log	60

ON THE COVER

LIBERALS DRAW THE LINE

The Netherlands has its own take on issues such as shipyard subsidies and port liberalisation 22

Cover photo/image: Office of Ineke Dezentjé Hamming-Bluemink, Dutch parliament

NEWSWATCH

KEY STORIES THIS WEEK

Dirty bombs: Ghost ships keep haunting Europe 4

Tasman tactics: Ship arrests suggest Polembros is upping the ante. . 6

Jones acrimony: Proposed laws would hit US trade investments 10

Banned aid: EU subsidies row ... 11

State capital: Kremlin moves on Yukos. 12

Basel brush: Shipowners fear capital shortage. 16

Aqaba answers back: Port considers boycott of unjust charges 17

Balanced view: Reconciling quality with competitiveness 18

Who said...?

“I am completely confident with a shipbroker telling me where to get off”

see p36

NEWSWATCH: Aden is starting to look attractive again to some container shippers scared off by terror attacks, but Singapore's PSA Corp isn't convinced p7

PROFILE: New Baltic Exchange head Jeremy Penn tells Fairplay where he's coming from - and it's where the newly-focused Baltic will be going p36

COMPANIES: Cutting calls can sound like bad news in the shipping business, but not when it happens at a P&I club p46

Always there for you

GLOBAL PORT AND MARINE SERVICES

Barwil
www.barwil.com