

Lloyd's Law Reports

The Leading Maritime and Commercial Law Reports

Editors: Michael Daiches, Barrister, and Professor Robert Merkin

CONTENTS	COURT	PAGE
Emirates Airlines Direktion für Deutschland v Schenkel [K LENAERTS, President, G ARESTIS, R SILVA DE LAPUERTA, J MALENOVSKÝ and T VON DANWITZ; E SHARPSTON] Carriage by air/EC Regulation providing for compensation to passengers in event of cancellation of flight/Passenger making single booking in member state for outward and return journey/Outward journey was from member state and return journey from non-member state/Return flight cancelled/ Whether passenger entitled to compensation/Whether journey out and back to be regarded as a "flight"/Reference for preliminary ruling/Regulation (EC) No 261/2004, article 3(1)(a)	[ECJ]	1
HLB Kidsons and Others v Lloyd's Underwriters Subscribing to Policy 621/PKID00101 and Others [RIX and TOULSON LJ and Sir RICHARD BUXTON] Insurance (professional indemnity)/Policies requiring assured to give notice in writing as soon as practicable of any circumstances of which it became aware/Whether assured became aware of circumstances/Whether valid notification given to underwriters/Whether clause constituted a condition precedent to underwriters' liability	[CA]	8
Masri v Consolidated Contractors International Co SAL and Another [Sir ANTHONY CLARKE MR, LONGMORE and LAWRENCE COLLINS LJ] Practice/Judgment/Enforcement/Non-parties/Judgment creditor applying for orders requiring respondents to attend court and provide information to enable judgment to be enforced against judgment debtor companies/Judgment creditor asserting that respondents were officers of judgment debtors/Respondents resident and domiciled in Greece/ Whether court had jurisdiction to make orders against respondents/Whether court should exercise discretion in judgment creditor's favour notwithstanding failure to make full and frank disclosure on without notice application/CPR 17.2 and 6.30(2)/Council Regulations (EC) Nos 44/2001 and 1206/2001	[CA]	42